Very rarely does one of Gisborne's landmark properties become available. This idyllic family sanctuary beckons from behind a stunning period façade, and offers a true entertainers paradise. The original weatherboard residence has enjoyed a luxurious renovation and extension; and presents an elaborate lifestyle opportunity. Framed by a picket fence, entry is through an ornate gate. The grand entry beckons you along the wide hallway, where you will find yourself transported through a very special home. The floor plan spills across two generous levels, presenting multiple formal and informal family spaces, a dream kitchen, theatre, gym and so much more.
