

399 Couangalt Road Gisborne South VIC

5 2 3

Very rarely does such a magical lifestyle opportunity, complete with multiple dwellings, become available in this exclusively held pocket of Gisborne South.

The property itself is located less than 7 km from the booming township of Gisborne and offers easy access to the Calder Freeway.

COTTAGE - The original historic cottage originally operated as the Couangalt Post Office between approximately 1934 - 1965. This delightfully quirky cottage has been fully renovated and extended, and could suit an extended family member or B&B enterprise (STCA).

HOMESTEAD - The main house was built in approx. 1996. This 4 bedroom limestone residence is full of character. With open plan living, vaulted ceilings, plus a generous home office / sitting room, the homestead includes hydronic heating, and radiator panels in each room.

Price : $ 1,750,000
Land Size : 15 Acres
