4 2 2

Tucked away in a private location, 15 Scott Street, seamlessly blends with its natural surroundings. This cozy log home perfectly combines rustic charm with a stylish interior including vaulted ceilings, exposed beam, spotted gum engineered flooring, and VJ panelling.

The easy flowing floorplan is centred around the open plan kitchen / dining / lounge / retreat that is flooded with natural light from windows on three sides.

A striking 3.2m (approx.) American Maple timber bench is an inviting centerpiece to the kitchen, waiting for family and friends to gather. Preparation space is abundant with a second full-length bench that overlooks the pool area and garden surrounds.

There are four bedrooms, all with built-in robes and garden
